FINDINGS, CONCLUSIONS, AND RECOMMENDATION OF THE UNITED STATES MAGISTRATE JUDGE

Pro se Plaintiff Crisanto Palomo filed a complaint while incarcerated at the Lubbock County Detention Center (LCDC). Dkt. No. 1. Because he has not complied with Court orders and has failed to pay the filing fee, the undersigned recommends that the United States District Judge dismiss the action under Rule 41(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

1. Background

This action was transferred to the undersigned magistrate judge for the purpose of conducting preliminary screening under the Prison Litigation Reform Act (PLRA). Dkt. No. 8. Before the case was reassigned, Palomo was granted leave to proceed in forma pauperis (IFP). Dkt. No. 7. That order did not assess an initial partial filing fee, and it required Palomo to pay the full fee in monthly installments drawn from his inmate trust account. Id.

During preliminary screening, Palomo filed a notice of change of address showing he was no longer in a jail or prison facility. Dkt. No. 16; see Dkt. No. 17 (reflecting release from LCDC to probation effective March 26, 2025). Because Palomo was no longer in custody, the Court ordered him to pay the $350.00 filing fee by June 2, 2025. Dkt. No. 18. Palomo was cautioned that failure to timely pay the fee would result in dismissal of his case without prejudice under Rule 41(b). Id. at 2. As of the date of this recommendation, Palomo has not paid the fee or otherwise communicated with the Court.

2. The PLRA and Involuntary Dismissal

The PLRA requires all prisoners who bring a civil suit to prepay the full filing fee in some form. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(1); Gay v. Tex. Dep't of Corr. State Jail Div., 117 F.3d 240, 242 (5th Cir. 1997) (citing § 1915(b)(2)). A prisoner who is granted leave to proceed IFP must pay the fee but is allowed to do so in installments that are withdrawn from his inmate trust account by the prison facility and forwarded to the Court. See Dkt. No. 8. The provision of the PLRA that allows for payment by installments applies only while the prisoner is in custody. See 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b)(2). After release, “withdrawal of funds from an inmate trust account, pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915(b) and as envisioned in the Court’s [PLRA Filing Fee Order], is no longer an option.” Mabry v. TDCJ, No. 4:10cv520, 2013 WL 4522684, at *1 (E.D. Tex. Aug. 23, 2013). Gay, 117 F.3d at 242 n.3.

When a plaintiff fails to comply with court orders—including those requiring payment—“[a] district court may dismiss an action for failure of a plaintiff to prosecute or to comply” with the orders. McCollough v. Lynaugh, 835 F.2d 1126, 1127 (5th Cir. 1988) (per curiam). The court may exercise this authority sua sponte. Link v. Wabash R.R. Co., 370 U.S. 626, 630–33 (1962); Clofer v. Perego, 106 F.3d 678, 679 (5th Cir.

1997) (per curiam). This authority “flows from the court’s inherent power to control its docket and prevent undue delays in the disposition of pending cases.” Boudwin v. Graystone Ins. Co., 756 F.2d 399, 401 (5th Cir. 1985) (citing Link, 370 U.S. at 630).

Here, Palomo was ordered to pay the filing fee after his release from custody and warned that failure to do so would result in dismissal of this action. Dkt. No. 18. Courts routinely dismiss cases when plaintiffs fail to pay the full filing fee as ordered after release from custody. See, e.g., Fulco v. Kaufman Cnty. Sheriff’s Dep’t, No. 3:24-cv-3076-B (BT), 2025 WL 848487, at *1–2 (N.D. Tex. Feb. 24, 2025) (“Because [former prisoner] failed to comply with an order that he pay the remainder of the filing fee as required by the PLRA, his case should be dismissed.”), R. & R. adopted by 2025 WL 847876 (N.D. Tex. Mar. 17, 2025); Surber v. Dall. Cnty. Sheriff’s Off., No. 3:21-CV-2885-X-BH, 2022 WL 18717540, at *1–2 (N.D. Tex. Aug. 15, 2022) (concluding prisoner’s case was subject to involuntary dismissal under Rule 41(b) after he failed to pay the full filing fee as ordered upon his release from prison), R. & R. adopted by 2023 WL 2026639 (N.D. Tex. Feb. 15, 2023). Because Palomo has violated court orders by not paying the filing fee, the United States District Judge should dismiss this case for want of prosecution.

3. Recommendation

For the foregoing reasons, the undersigned RECOMMENDS that the United States District Judge dismiss Palomo’s complaint without prejudice for want of prosecution in accordance with Rule 41(b) of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure.

The fourteen-day period for objections to these findings, conclusions, and recommendation provides Palomo an additional opportunity to pay the filing fee. If Palomo does so, the undersigned recommends that this action be transferred back to the undersigned for further proceedings.

4. Right to Object

A copy of these findings, conclusions, and recommendation shall be served on all parties in the manner provided by law. Any party who objects to any part of these findings, conclusions, and recommendation must file specific written objections within fourteen days after being served with a copy. See 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1) (2016); Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(b). To be specific, an objection must identify the specific finding, conclusion, or recommendation to which objection is made, state the basis for the objection, and specify the place in the magistrate judge's Findings, Conclusions, and Recommendation where the disputed determination is found. An objection that merely incorporates by reference or refers to the briefing before the magistrate judge is not specific. Failure to file specific written objections will bar the aggrieved party from appealing the factual findings and legal conclusions of the magistrate judge that are accepted or adopted by the district court, except upon grounds of plain error. See Douglass v. United Servs. Auto. Ass'n, 79 F.3d 1415, 1417 (5th Cir. 1996).

Dated: June 26, 2025.
